Alameda County Fairgrounds Set to Auction Antique Farm & Americana Treasures

Pleasanton, Calif – February 18, 2015 – It’s a treasure hunter’s dream come true: Alameda County Fairgrounds has loaded up the auction block with hundreds of rare, collectible farm and Americana items for an unprecedented sale.

BidCal.com (www.bidcal.com) hosts the online auction, which opens for bidding on Saturday, February 21, 2015 and runs through Tuesday, February 24, 2015. All items, presented in 470 Lots, have been posted and are currently available to view prior to the start of the auction.

Items available for sale include everything from a claw foot bathtub, to a “one-of-a-kind” Longhorn furniture set and a custom built motorhome.

“We are re-organizing our Agricultural Heritage Department and found that we had so many items that we can’t properly display them. Fortunately, we’ve identified many items we’ll be keeping for display and hands on activities in the future. Proceeds from the auction will be used towards improving our Agricultural Heritage Department and a future year round agriculture education program.” said Judy Carrico, the Fair Operations Manager and organizer of the event.

A sampling of antique items for auction include:

- Egg-cleaning machine
- Telephone switchboard
- Blacksmith forge
- Grape-crushing machine
- Waltz Safe
- Horse-drawn concession stand
- Tractors and washing machines
- Many boxes of parts & tools
- Much, much more

Auction items may be visited on-site at special preview hours at the Fairgrounds in Pleasanton.

Preview Hours:

Saturday, February 21, 10am to 4pm

Monday, February 23, 10am to 4pm
