THE FAIR SALUTES OUR NATION'S HEROES ON OPENING WEEKEND Free Fair Admission For Two With Valid Military I.D.

PLEASANTON, CA - Opening weekend, the Alameda County Fair will honor the extraordinary contributions of the men and women who serve our country in the Armed Forces.

Friday, June 22nd, through Sunday, June 24th, will be Military Appreciation days at the 2007 Alameda County Fair. All active members of the United States Military, as well as U.S. Military Veterans and Reservists, are welcome to bring a guest and take pleasure in two complimentary passes for that day. Simply present a valid Military I.D. for free admission.

Just as patriotic as apple pie, Friday, June 22nd the sky will light up with the annual Alameda County Fair Fireworks show sponsored by Fremont Bank. The fireworks will be set off at approximately 9:15 p.m.

Don't miss the 2007 Annual Fair Parade, where the Stars and Strips Hat Balloon is being handled by the Livermore Army Recruiting Station and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Pleasanton. Joining the recruiters today are several new Army recruits that will begin training over the next few weeks.
